Property Description

Built and Designed in 1969 by West Tennessee's premier interior designers as their private home, and occupied by them. This brick home has 2,880 sq. ft. of living area professionally planned and designed by experts. It has front walk-out porches across the entire length of the home on both 1st & 2nd levels. Interior design extras include spiral staircase in entry, hardwood floors, large handmade moldings for floors, facings and ceilings, interior pilasters, built-in shelving, solid wood doors, and breath-taking handmade drapes and window treatments. Beautiful mature trees and hedging provide a private setting on a corner lot across from a scenic neighborhood lake. This property is within site and walking distance of the Hardeman County Golf & Country Club and the new Bolivar City Park with more walking trails.
